

Image not found or type unknown

Silberne Verdienstmedaille 4. Klasse am Band des St. Stanislaus-Orden N-I-17042.jpg

Silver medal of merit with ribbon (IV class) of the St Stanislaus Order

Restitution status: Dubiousness is still to be clarified

Categories: Coins and medals

Object Data

Artist

unknown

Museum

Museum of Military History

Inventory Number

N.I. 17.042

Description

Russia

Material

Further kinds of metal

Provenance Data

Former owner according to museum / collection

Provenance unknown

Provenance

Acquisition from the VUGESTA/GESTAPO

Provenance according to museum / collection

On 29 October 1940, the head of the Museum of Military History ('Heeresgeschichtliches Museum') took over 15 Medals of Merit with ribbon (IV class) of the St. Stanislaus Order from the Gestapo. They were filed in the museum inventory as inventory numbers 'N.I. 17.042-17056'.

Committee

Art Restitution Advisory Board

Pendency

The questionable nature of the provenance of the art or cultural object is being or has been examined by the museum/the collection/the Commission for Provenance Research. So far, the case has not been dealt with by the Art Restitution Advisory Board.

Recommendation

No recommendation has been issued yet.

Committee in charge

Federal Minister of Defence

Decision

No decision has been reached so far.

Implementation

The art or cultural object is kept in the museum/in the collection.

Annotations

Most of the original fifteen objects (N.I. 17.042-17.056) were lost during the final years of WW II and/or by relocating museum objects from hiding-places. This is why only the medals N.I. 17.042 und N.I. 17.054 can be found in the collections of the Museum of Military History ('Heeresgeschichtliches Museum') today.